

ENRGHI 2012 Programme

Monday 10th September

Time	Session	Speakers	Title
8.30-9.00am	Registration
9.00-9.30am	Welcome	Dr Nicola Shelton, UCL
9.30-10.30am	Session A: Physical activity and greenspace	Anna Kenyon Sarah Bell Lindsay Kobayashi Jemima Stockton	The socio-spatial distribution of 'walkable' neighbourhoods in Scotland Perceptions and use of greenspace: implications for health, wellbeing and landscape design Lifetime Physical Activity and Breast Cancer Risk: Results from a Canadian Case-Control Study TBC
10.30-11.00am	Tea break
11.00am-12.00pm	Session B: Geographies of ageing	Mathilde Plard Dorina Cadar Charlotte de Fontgalland Linden Douma	Aging and Spatial analysis : Thinking a complex method to explore the challenges of aging across the territories of gerontological action Use it or Lose it! The role of lifestyle behaviours on cognitive decline Social and medical issues of health management in Cantal (France): reconciling the needs of an elderly population with the aspirations of young doctors The role of culture in experiences of subjective wellbeing of older adults
12.00-1.00pm	Session C: Health in global cities	Jens Kandt George Weeks John Windie Ansah Myfanwy Taylor	Population health in Hong Kong: exploring geographical variations Objectively Healthy Cities - Urban Design for the 21st Century Emerging Health Threats in Ghana: Trends and Policy Responses on Degenerative Disease in Accra Metropolitan Area Healthy Cities: towards an international and interdisciplinary approach
1.00-2.00pm	Lunch and posters
2.00-2.45pm	Plenary session 1: Title TBC	Dr Maurizio Gibin, Birkbeck University
2.45-3.45pm	Session D: Health behaviours	Richard Tyler Emma Davies Jude Hancock Linda Ng Fat	Issues in investigating 'place' and the co-consumption of cannabis and tobacco in young people Prototypes and drinking places: The development of an intervention to reduce alcohol misuse in young people based on the Prototype Willingness Model Changing intentions to perform three condom behaviours in the general population: An online intervention study TBC
3.45-4.00pm	Tea break
4.00-5.00pm	Session E: Health service access and healthcare delivery (1/2)	Alexandru Matei Virginie Mobillion Morgan Berger Amanda Odoi	WellbeingUCL - A mobile Platform for Medical Data Collection Health Service Accessibility in the capital city of a people's democratic republic: the case of vientian (Lao PDR) Understanding haemophiliac patients' health care patterns with interviews in order to improve accessibility to treatment Utilization of health facilities among pregnant women in New Juaben Municipality of Ghana: The Human Relations Side
5.00pm	Drinks reception sponsored by the Queen Mary Centre for Urban Health (free, all welcome)
7.00pm	Dinner at Needoo Grill, Whitechapel (£25, please confirm in advance)

Tuesday 11th September

Time	Session	Speakers	Title
9.00-10.00am	Post-PhD career talk and Q&amp;A	Dr Ellen Flint, QMUL Dr Clare Herrick, King's College London Dr Dan Lewis, QMUL Claire Thompson, QMUL
10.00-11.00am	Session E: Health service access and healthcare delivery (2/2)	Ishwari Sivagnanam  Bertrand Lefebvre Grant Aitken  Wei Yang	Population prevalence forecasts to model health service distribution for Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus in the Republic of Ireland  Neighbourhoods poverty and the spatial accessibility of hospitals in Delhi Inequalities in Chronic Kidney Disease: Using synthetic multilevel modelling to derive sources of unmet need Who is using formal health care and who is using informal health care? Implication for health equity in China
11.00-11.30am	Tea break
11.30am-12.15pm	Session F: Geographies of mental health	Nicolò Marchesini  Menah Raven-Ellison Amanda Slaunwhite Eric Koka	Do internal migrations affect the mental health of migrants? Depression and anxiety analysis by the British Households Panel Survey, 1991-2008.  Beyond detention: Women, home and mental health Reclaiming the lived experience and public policy
12.15-1.00pm	Session G: Experiences of health and impairment	Eric Koka  Mark Lucherini Louise Meijering	Social Death: The case of HIV and Aids stigmatisation in the Central Regional Hospital of Ghana, Cape Coast  The Everyday Geographies of Living With Diabetes "I prefer to stay in bed all day". Everyday geographies of stroke patients
1.00-2.00pm	Lunch and posters
2.00-3.00pm	Plenary session 2: Title TBC	Professor Steve Cummins
3.00-4.00pm	Session H: Open stream	Clélia Gasquet-Blanchard Hamad Aldossari  Natalie Savona Debbie Braybrook	Socio-territorial inequities in health among pregnant women in France  The use of GIS to identify environmental and socioeconomic factors associated with cutaneous leishmaniasis outbreak in Aldawadmi governate, Saudi Arabia Portrayal of responsibility for healthy diets by architects of the food system Negotiating ethical dilemmas in interviews with gay couples
4.00-4.30pm	Tea break
4.30-5.00pm	Q&amp;A with editor of Journal of Epidemiology &amp; Community Health, Dr Jim Dunn (McMaster University, Canada)
5.00pm	Prizes presented by Dr Jim Dunn
6.00pm	Drinks with Society for Social Medicine Early Career Researchers (optional)

---

Poster presentations

Presenter name	Poster title
Sadie Boniface	Is my glass of wine a vase? Variations in actual and perceive measures of a 'usual glass' of alcoholic drinks in England
Dorina Cadar	Food for thought! The role of dietary choices on cognitive behaviour
Gareth James	Current use of long-term antibiotic treatment in COPD
Jongmin Jeong	London Diaries : Dementia as Capacity and Responsibility Transcending Categorization and Discourse
Shiraz Sheriff	Environmental Change and Asthma: Results from Second phase of Research exploring the role of Social Deprivation and its influence on Crude Prevalence rates of Asthma in GP practices using GIS
Stephen Clark	Modelling the impacts of demographic ageing on the demand for health care services
Sue Jackson	Dealing with difficult life events, a distraction from proper self care and weight management leading to morbid obesity?

All sessions are held in room G37/8, UCL Department of Epidemiology and Public Health